

Locating the edges of your garden lot

The East and South edge of your lot can easily be found by pulling a string between the posts.

The distance between the posts on the West side of your lot should be between 24" to 30"

The distance between the posts on the North side of your lot should be between 30" to 36"

